You will receive a timely invitation to the event. You will be assigned an identification number by email, which you must use to register as a participant on Zoom. If you attend in person, you must confirm your attendance on the list provided.

At the end of the lecture series, you will receive a certificate of participation by email.

Note: Participation in Zoom meetings as a group is not recommended, as we cannot verify individual identities. Lecture content will be made available. Further details will be provided during the lecture sessions.

The data you send us will be stored temporarily only for dissertation purposes and exclusively on UKB computers.

Signed,
Prof. Dr. Jens Müller
